

Immigration Lawyer Referral Service

As listed on the American Immigration Lawyers Association's web site (www.aila.org)

The lawyers participating in the referral service are members of AILA (American Immigration Lawyers Association) who are licensed to practice law in a state or territory of the United States and are currently a member in good standing of a State Bar Association.

You will be charged no more than $50 for an initial in-person, one-half-hour consultation.

How the referral service works: you call 1-800-954-0254. Or, you may send an email to ilrs@aila.org. Please be sure to provide your name, location and what your need for an immigration lawyer is.

If you are calling, when the service representative answers your call you will be asked for the following:

- Your name
- The city and state within which you reside
- Your phone number
- What your specific needs are (e.g., a lawyer specializing in asylum)

The service representative will then look for a lawyer in your geographic area that specializes in your area of need.

- You will be provided with the name, phone number and location of the lawyer.
- You will be given the name of one lawyer.
- If you contact that lawyer and s/he is unable to help you, you may call back and be referred to another lawyer.

*After giving you the referral, the service representative will be contacting the lawyer that was referred to notify him or her that a referral has been made. The service representative will provide the lawyer with your first and last name, the city and state within which you reside, and your issue. No other information will be given.

When you contact the lawyer:

- You must tell them that you received his or her name through AILA's Immigration Lawyer Referral Service.

Please note: AILA's Immigration Lawyer Referral Service does not provide legal advice. The service will refer you to a lawyer in your geographic area specializing in your area of need.
